Summary of Legislation: This bill deletes certain references to obsolete entities in codified noncode transitional provisions relating to the creation of the Indiana Finance Authority. The bill repeals a codified noncode statute relating to enforcement of child support orders that was held unconstitutional by the Indiana Court of Appeals.

Effective Date: July 1, 2011.

Explanation of State Expenditures: The provision of the bill which repeals IC 31-16-12-0.3 would not have any fiscal impact. This section of statute that deals with the enforcement of child support orders was held unconstitutional by the Indiana Court of Appeals. The Department of Child Services is not currently applying the statute.
